Message from Mr Delgado –Principal

First of all I would like to wish you all a restful break and thank you for your continued support this half term in helping us to raise standards – it really makes a difference.

I wanted to let you know how well Year 11 students are working at the moment during this busy exam period for them and I look forward to their graduation at the beginning of July.

I also really look forward to the start of the last half term of the year as we will be celebrating the excellent behaviour and attitudes to learning demonstrated by students who have achieved no behaviour points. These students will be receiving a zero hero badge that recognises their commitment to high standards. In addition to this the academy will also be displaying inspirational photos and messages from students across the school that will help to raise the profile of success.

Juan Delgado

Important

Science Year 11 Intervention is being held on Tuesday 29th May 10-1 triple chemistry and 1-4 pm for synergy pupils.

Health and Social Care News

Year 11 and year 12 students were invited to PARKFIELD Nursing Home on the 20th April 2pm where the Mayor opened the new refurbished activity room and the celebration of the Queen's birthday.

Science & Technology Hero of the week – Natasha Lockwood ST2

Natasha is an outstanding student who works hard, is dedicated to her studies and is a role model to Park Academy students. Congratulations Natasha

Drama News

Year 12 Drama students performed their final exam piece in front of an audience of over 160 staff, students and external visitors this week. A fantastic demonstration of their hard work and commitment to their course since starting in Sixth Form. Students left inspired to be able to create work of a similar high standard- truly aspirational Year 12- well done! Mrs Bellamy and Mr Taylor.
